

3 Design Trends from The Kips Bay Decorator Show House

This year, 22 of the country's top designers gathered under one roof for the Kips Bay Designer Show House. Featuring innovative and gorgeous design styles, the show house was filled with inspirational ideas and decor trends that you can translate into your home. Read on for a few ideas from the Kips Bay designers on how to big impact in your space.

1. Make a splash in an unexpected space with bold colors.

Sasha Bikoff uses bright wallpaper, paint and rugs to create a bold staircase, making a bold splash in a space that is often overlooked while Scott Sanders, LLC uses bronze accents to turn a powder room into a jaw-dropping space.

2. Mix patterns on the floor and walls to create a surprisingly cohesive look.

Mark D. Sikes Interiors shows off how different patterns in muted colors can work together in one bedroom while Juan Montoya Design uses big, bold patterns on the walls, window coverings and floor to create a beautiful statement.

3. Update neutrals with blush.

Barbara Ostrom Associates uses a gorgeous peach blush tone to cover paneled walls. Marcia Tucker uses blush leather paneled walls in a dressing room to create a tranquil, feminine space.
