

Kitchen & Bath Business

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF KBIS

Galleries: Trends & Inspirations

A Look Inside the 2018 Kips Bay Decorator Show House

“The material selections throughout the kitchen compliment the warmth of the walnut with contemporary stainless steel elements, such as the door inlay, backsplash, hanging pot pantries and custom hardware.”

– Clive Christian, Dundee, U.K.-
based Clive Christian Interiors,
Photo by Nikolas Sargent

The custom geometric marquetry panel above the range is made up of aqua-dyed wood veneer and burl walnut veneer.

– Clive Christian, Dundee, U.K.-
based Clive Christian Interiors,
Photo by Nikolas Sargent

“I designed this master bathroom to be a peaceful sanctuary, to ensure complete relaxation, focused on personal wellness and offer escape from the distractions and chaos of daily life.”

– Marcia Tucker, Greenwich, Conn.- based Marcia Tucker Interiors,
Photo by Costas Picadas

“I used natural stones and lots of oak veneer wood to create warmth and a natural green wall to enhance the five senses.”

–Marcia Tucker, Greenwich, Conn.-based Marcia Tucker Interiors, Photo by Costas Picadas

This bath by Los Angeles-based Mark D. Sikes Interiors features a blue palette with rich textiles and a marble tile floor. Photo by Nikolas Sargent

Designed by New York City-based Scott Sanders LLC, this Mediterranean-inspired bath boasts a metallic wallpaper and a quirky chandelier in the toilet room. Photo by Nikolas Sargent